REDUCED KANSAS MAYOR'S ROLL, IS GIRL'S ADMISSION

Ethel Parker, Arrested Here,
Doesn't Think He Should Be
Sore Because, She Says,
She Took Only $20.

Ethel Parker, young, pretty and stylish, does not think the mayor of a Kansas town—she did not remember its name—should have been pestered just because she took $20 of his roll, unknown to him—until later. She admitted taking the twenty. In view of her close though brief friendship with the Kansas mayor, however, she felt that he should not have kicked.

Ethel was arrested here last night by Chief Thomas McMillin shortly after her arrival. Capt. Pat O'Grady was with the chief. The girl was going to San Francisco. The chief had telegrams from the chief of detectives of Kansas City, Mo., and the chief of police of Kansas City, Kan., asking him to hold her.

One of the telegrams said the chief of detectives held a warrant for Ethel, charging her with larceny from person. The amount was $1,200, according to this wire, and the complaining witness, J. S. Gibson. The Albuquerque police were asked, in the telegram, to search Ethel and hold all jewelry. The message said she had $1,200 in diamonds. The other telegram cautioned the police to "get all her baggage."

Find No Diamonds.
A word picture of Ethel was given in one of the wires. She had auburn hair and brown eyes. She is five feet tall and weighs between 122 and 125 pounds.

Ethel, who has an alias of Gertrude, according to the Kansas City police, had just finished supper when Chief McMillin met her.

"Miss Parker?" inquired the chief. She admitted it. Then she went to headquarters with the chief. Remembering the warning, her grips were obtained by the police. They were unable to get her trunk last night. No diamonds were found in her possession. She denied getting the amount mentioned in the telegram, telling Chief McMillin it was only $20.

Ethel said, however, that she and the Kansas mayor had been together from Wednesday of last week until Sunday and that he had spent about $500 in that time. She could not recall the name of the town of which her friend was chief executive. It began with a "C," she said. Chief McMillin, who is a native Kansan, called the names of all the towns he could remember, answering this meager description, but none stirred a familiar chord in her memory.

That her friend was a mayor, was Ethel's statement. Neither of the telegrams received by the police said so.

PROMPT ANSWER GIVEN CHALLENGE OF M'MILLEN

District Attorney Summers
Burkhart Replies to Statement Issued by President of Water Supply Company.

In a statement issued by A. B. McMillen in the Journal of yesterday morning, A. B. McMillen used the following language:

"Will any one of the gentlemen represented as favoring the bond issue make a statement over his own name that bonds can be legally issued without an ordinance which cannot be repealed and which shall provide for a special property tax sufficient to pay interest and provide a sinking fund sufficient to pay the bonds? We challenge them to make such statement."

Burkhart's Reply.
A prompt answer to Mr. McMillen's challenge came over the long distance telephone yesterday afternoon from District Attorney Summers Burkhart, who is now in Santa Fe.

"Nobody has ever contended," said Mr. Burkhart, "that it would not be necessary to pass an ordinance providing for a tax to cover the interest and sinking fund of the bond issue. The point is that if the city has the money in hand from other sources the levy of that tax will be unnecessary, and with a properly conducted municipal water plant there will be money on hand to meet those charges."

"Mr. McMillen knows as well as he knows anything that with a city plant in operation which is earning enough money to pay interest and sinking fund charges, it will not be necessary to levy a tax for that purpose, even though an ordinance providing for such a contingency is necessary."

Ballard and McDonald Confer.
Santa Fe, April 3.—Charles L. Ballard, former sheriff of Chaves county, and member of the cattle sanitary board, arrived in Santa Fe today for a conference with Governor McDonald. He reported that a snowstorm on Friday prevented the "Apple Blossom Pageant," which had been arranged for that day, and which was to have included an automobile procession through the orchards round about Roswell.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody can Tell when you
Darken Gray, Faded Hair with Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown drugist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application of two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

LOCAL RED CROSS SOCIETY TO BEGIN MAKING BANDAGES

Meeting to Be Held This Afternoon at Woman's Club;
Work in This Line Stimulated by Mexican Expedition

A meeting of the Albuquerque chapter of the Red Cross society will be held this afternoon at the Woman's club, at 2 o'clock. The purpose of the meeting is to begin the actual work of preparing bandages and other medical supplies for use by the national society.

Word has been received from national headquarters that preparedness in the line of first aid, nursing and other medicinal phases of warfare has been greatly stimulated throughout the country by the expedition into Mexico. All interested in taking up the work of the American Red Cross society are invited to be present at today's meeting.

WIDENING OF WEST CENTRAL IS ORDERED BY COUNTY BOARD

The county commissioners yesterday ordered the widening of the narrow stretch in the West Central avenue road, east of the acequia. Property owners offered to give part of their lots for this purpose. The county will build a sidewalk in front of their shortened lots, joining the present concrete walk on the north side of the street.

The county also will build sidewalks in front of the courthouses. The grand jury recommended this. Walks will be built from the main entrance to each of the three gates, forming a big letter "T" with the top at the front door.

District Attorney Manuel U. Vigil was instructed to begin mandamus proceedings against the commissioners of Sandoval county to compel them to pay interest alleged to be due Bernalillo county.

Snow in the Manzanos.
Santa Fe, April 3.—Assistant Superintendent of Insurance Peter A. M. Lienau, who returned this morning from Mountainair and the Manzanos country, reports thirty inches of snow and that many roofs are breaking under the weight of the snow. Ashley Pond reports two feet of snow in the Pajarito Park, thirty miles west of Santa Fe.

| Michigan City, Municipal | 6c per 1,000 gal.            |

Richmond, Indiana, Water company, a private plant, charged a meter rate of 25c a month. The Public Service Commission declared this to be an unjust and unreasonable charge and would not allow it, as the size meter in general use costs only $8.00 each.

THE WATER COMPANY ASKS A METER CHARGE OF THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR IN ADDITION TO WATER RATE. DOES THE COMPANY GUARANTEE TO TAKE OFF THE MINIMUM-CHARGE JOKER?

MR. VOTER:

You better be in a position to talk terms to the company.

VOTE FOR THE BONDS

JUST TWO ISSUES

There are just two issues to be decided at the polls today. They are municipal ownership and decency.

The Democrats are in the affirmative on both issues. On the question of municipal ownership Henry Westerfeld, the head of the ticket, is a platform in himself. YOU KNOW HOW HE STANDS AND YOU KNOW HOW THE MEN ON THE TICKET WITH HIM STAND.

D. H. Boatright is a recent convert to the principle of municipal ownership. Within the last few months he took the trouble to have an ordinance specially prepared, granting a franchise to the Water Supply Company, which for years has been charging water-users exorbitant prices for a necessity of life.

On the ticket with Boatright are at least two men who are dangerously close to the Water Supply Company. If you believe the people should own their own water supply be careful about voting for any man on the Republican ticket.

The Democratic platform calls for the abolition of the iniquitous wine-rooms, the closing of the saloons on Sunday and the enforcement of the law against gambling. THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES WILL CARRY OUT THAT PLATFORM IF THEY ARE ELECTED.

The Republican platform on the subject of decency means just exactly nothing. Mayor Boatright has stated openly that he doesn't think it would be "fair" to make the saloons close on Sunday. On the subject of gambling and the wine-rooms he hasn't said a word.

Henry Westerfeld is the candidate of the plain people who are protesting against the encroachments of a rapacious monopoly.

"Dave" Boatright is the candidate of "Cap" Gillenwater, Jesus Romero, "Sir George" Roslington, J. Porter Jones and "Colonel Jack" Albright. A. B. McMillen is known to have strong leanings in his direction.
